Special thanks to Veterans Law Judges Harvey Roberts, Marjorie Auer, Keith Allen, and Chief Member Mark Greenstreet for their special assistance with the edition.

The first edition of the VETERANS LAW REVIEW would not have been possible without the volunteer efforts of over one hundred attorneys working for the Board of Veterans' Appeals.

Dedicated to improving government service to veterans and their families.

Founded by James P. Terry

Published by the Board of Veterans' Appeals, the VETERANS LAW REVIEW encourages frank discussion of relevant legislative, administrative, and judicial developments in veterans benefits law.

Views expressed in published articles must be considered solely those of individual authors and do not purport to voice the views of the Board of Veterans' Appeals, the Department of Veterans Affairs, or any other Agency or Department of the United States.

The VETERANS LAW REVIEW is published yearly by appropriated funds by authority of the Department of Veterans Affairs and the volunteer efforts of attorneys working at the Board of Veterans' Appeals. This issue of the VETERANS LAW REVIEW may be cited as: 1 Veterans L. Rev. [page number] (2009).

SUBMISSIONS FOR THE 2010 VETERANS LAW REVIEW

The VETERANS LAW REVIEW welcomes the submission of articles, notes, comments, and book reviews for the 2010 edition. Each manuscript should be typed, double-spaced, preferably in Times New Roman 12 and received at the Board of Veterans' Appeals no later than June 1, 2009. We actively encourage veterans' service organizations, veterans, and people who work on veterans' issues to submit original legal writings for consideration for publication. The editors review each manuscript for scholarly merit, clarity, and accuracy only. The editors will notify the author of any substantive changes. Submissions should conform to the current edition of the Blue Book: A Uniformed System of Citation.

Authors are invited to discuss potential submissions with the current VETERANS LAW REVIEW Editor-in-Chief at (202) 461-8361 or by email at john.crowley@va.gov.

Unless otherwise indicated, all editors are lawyers or Veterans Law Judges working at the Board of Veterans' Appeals.
