The third volume of the Veterans Law Review would not have been possible without the volunteer efforts of over one hundred attorneys working for the Board of Veterans' Appeals.

Dedicated to improving government service to Veterans and their families.

Founded by James P. Terry

Published by the Board of Veterans' Appeals, the Veterans Law Review encourages frank discussion of relevant legislative, administrative, and judicial developments in veterans' benefits law.

Views expressed in this publication must be considered solely those of individual authors and do not purport to voice the views of the Board of Veterans' Appeals, the Department of Veterans Affairs, or any other Agency or Department of the United States.

The Veterans Law Review is published yearly by appropriated funds by authority of the Department of Veterans Affairs and the volunteer efforts of attorneys working at the Board of Veterans' Appeals. This issue of the Veterans Law Review may be cited as: 3 VETERANS L. REV. [page number] (2011).

MAILING LIST

Information regarding inclusion on the mailing list for future editions of the Veterans Law Review may be obtained by writing to the Managing Editor, Veterans Law Review, Room 841 (mail code 01A), Lafayette Bldg., 810 Vermont Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20420.

INDIVIDUAL COPIES

Individual copies of the Veterans Law Review may be obtained by emailing BVAVeteransLawReviewSubscription@va.gov or writing to the Managing Editor.

SUBMISSIONS FOR THE 2012 VETERANS LAW REVIEW

The Veterans Law Review welcomes the submission of Articles, Notes, and Book Reviews for the 2012 edition. Each manuscript should be typed, double-spaced, preferably in Times New Roman 12 and received at the Board of Veterans' Appeals no later than May 1, 2011. We actively encourage veterans' service organizations, veterans, and people who work on veterans' issues to submit original legal writings for consideration for publication. The editors review each manuscript for scholarly merit, clarity, and accuracy only. The editors will notify the author of any substantive changes. Submissions should conform to the current edition of The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation.

Authors are invited to discuss potential submissions with the 2012 Veterans Law Review Editor-in-Chief by email at:

BVAVeteransLawReviewEditor@va.gov

Unless otherwise indicated, all editors are attorneys or Veterans Law Judges working at the Board of Veterans' Appeals.
